

Hello all,

I hope this message finds you well! My name is Kenny, and I'm excited to introduce myself as the new Fenland Communication Worker at CCVS. I have a deep passion for our community, and I'm thrilled to be in a position where I can help Fenland connect, grow, and thrive together. Please find a Support Fenland update from CCVS below.

In my role, I'll be rounding up all the latest Fenland activity and keeping you updated on news and opportunities that can help strengthen our local community. Whether you're a local charity or a community member, I'm here to support you and help make those vital connections.

If you want to relive last month's networking breakfast, or you missed out, please find out what transpired with these two blogs:

Last, but not least, we are looking for your volunteering experiences in the Fenland to promote on the Support Fenland social media page, including experiences you have had across the Fenland's over the last few years.

Please reach out to me if you have any you would like to share.

Please feel free to reach out if you have any questions or if there's anything you'd like to connect on. Let's make Fenland an even better place to live and work, together!

Warm regards,

Kenny

Free events and training:

Thursday 24 April: Fundraisers network

Thursday 8 May: Essential skills for Trustees – part 1 of 2

Thursday 15 May: Essential skills for Trustees – part 2 of 2

These events give trustees from community organisations and small charities the essential tools to perform their role safely and effectively. We recommend booking both sessions.

Thursday 22 May: Introduction to storytelling
